IMPORTANT NOTES:

- As far as COMPOSITION WRITING is concerned, there are three types of essays that we are concerned with at S.C level :
 1. Argumentative essays that require you to put forward a point of view and to justify your reasons for holding it.
 2. Descriptive essays that may ask you to write about a place or to describe a person or an event.
 3. Narrative essays that require you to write a story and may either provide you with a sentence on which to base your writing or ask you to write a story based on a particular situation.

Please note that at this institution NARRATIVE AND DESCRIPTIVE essays are taught as from Form I (Grade 7). ARGUMENTATIVE essays are explained as from Form III (Grade 9).

- As far as DIRECTED WRITING is concerned, it can be classified into the following 5 categories:
 1. Account (a formal report written to be read by someone in authority [the Principal of a school or the Police] in which you provide information about something which you have witnessed or in which you have assembled facts and details to support a particular proposition);
 2. Article (either in a newspaper or magazine) gives an account of an event or an episode ;
 3. Formal letter (for example, you may be required to write a letter to a magazine or newspaper, to a company or organisation asking for information or complaining about something);
 4. Informal letter (for example, you may be required to write a letter to a friend or acquaintance asking for their support in a venture you are undertaking or apologising for something which happened);
 5. Speech (considered to be a formal form of spoken address and is likely to be aimed at a large audience).
- Please note that at this institution students have to learn how to write FORMAL and INFORMAL letters as from Form I. Students are taught to write an ACCOUNT as from Form III. SPEECH WRITING and ARTICLE WRITING are discussed as from Form IV.
