

Grade 10 – Tutorial

Question 1:

Most governments throughout the world are encouraging businesses to be more aware of environmental responsibilities.

- a)
 - (i) Using examples show how a business decision could damage the environment.
 - (ii) How do you think governments can control business activity that damages the environment?
- b) The USA government recently increased interest rates in its country. Explain how this change might affect the following two businesses based in USA.
 - (i) A bakery
 - (ii) A car manufacturer
- c) The government in USA has also been increasing the size of the public sector.
 - (i) What is meant by the term ‘public sector’?
 - (ii) State and explain two objectives that enterprises in the public sector usually have.

Question 2:

- (a) What is meant by the term ‘value added’?
- (b) Zod is a large furniture enterprise. Due to cut-throat competition, he is facing difficulties to operate his business successfully. Suggest and elaborate on how he can increase his value added and compete in the market.