

Week 1

Tutorial : Howards End (Question and Research work)

1. Based on your reading of the first few chapters, explain how the epigraph 'only connect' set the tone for the events that unfold in the novel.
2. Comment on the bond between Mrs. Wilcox and Margaret and how that bond contributes to the novel as a whole.
3. Students to further research on industrialization and the changes taking place in London at the time Forster was writing.
4. According to you, how does the writer use Leonard Bast to comment on issues of class and economic barriers in society.
5. Read the following link and summarise relevant information on each character : <https://www.coursehero.com/lit/Howards-End/character-analysis/>

Tutorial : All my sons (Question and Research work)

1. Students to create a chart on all the characters they've encountered. Use notes given in class and additional research.
2. Based on your reading of the play, discuss social hierarchy and its impact on the characters of the novel.
3. Read the following article <https://www.newstimes.com/news/article/All-My-Sons-poses-gripping-social-issues-4351933.php>. Write down five main ideas from the article that you find interesting.
4. Comment on the language used by Miller. How does it contribute to your understanding of the characters and their world.